HOW will you use the information you learned?

Participants overall mentioned they will:

- Support children and families through the process of seeking genetic testing and a diagnosis
- Connect children and families with resources and a community
- Share information with coworkers
Have resources to refer back to as needed

I will use the resources provided to me as a professional and to share with families. I especially appreciated the reminder about the veipd.org Fragile X resource!

The resources highlighted were very helpful!
